

CAPTAIN AMERICA
-----------------

“You know, I’ve been on my own since I was eighteen. I never really fit in anywhere, even when I joined the army. My faith’s in people, I guess. Individuals. And I’m happy to say that, for the most part, they haven’t let me down. Which is why I can’t let them down, either. That’s why I joined the Avengers. They became my family...people I could count on. That I still count on, no matter what. Everyone needs that, don’t you think?”