

Star Wars™: Galactic Starcruiser

AUDITION SIDE: SABER TRAINER

In times such as these, center yourself. Your physical presence in the Galaxy can be a beacon of hope to those who share your desire for peace and tranquility. But unfocussed, that presence is exposed and vulnerable...susceptible to be drawn in by the darker energies that tempt the ill-prepared.

In the words of Dejammy Shallon, "When the pond is disturbed, we cannot see within. When the pond is still, we can see with clarity." Let not the pebbles of distraction agitate the waters of your being.

This is not to say ripples are to be ignored. Reaction is instinct and therefore justified. But not aggression. A mind that is bent on elimination lacks the capacity for compassion and reason. Beware the fool who remedies his guilt by interpreting another's reaction as the catalyst. It is the aggressor who bares the responsibility for all acts of violence.

Prepare your body to react, while demanding your mind be prepared to reason. Only in this balance will you be truly prepared. The light rewards those who recognize this lesson, and the dark consumes those who do not.
