Script:

(To audience) Even though what you're seeing today is a dry run, and not an actual shoot, the stunts themselves are all very real, as is the risk involved in performing them. The cast and crew are trained professionals who will be showing you a lot of incredible stunts, as well as the detailed preparation that goes into making them happen. And one of those details is the use of extras. (Casting Director comes in with extras - they are costumed in turbans and robes) You all look terrific. I didn't know they wore Reeboks in Cairo. (To Casting Director) I sure hope this works. (To extras) Okay everybody, the first thing I need you to do is act like a crowd. (They all huddle together like a confused mob). Cut!! Act like a straight line again. Okay, let me give you a little better direction. I want everybody to react at the same time. Ready? You're happy, you're terrified, you're standing on hot coals. . . now your cookin'.
