

Howie
"Disney's Spirit of Aloha Dinner Show"
Disney's Polynesian Resort, Walt Disney World

Show Description:

The "Spirit of Aloha Dinner Show" is a musical theatre style interpretation of a classic Hawaiian Luau show. Combining traditional Polynesian dance with contemporary music and characters, the show celebrates the meaning of 'ohana' (family) and the spirit of aloha (welcome, love).

Character Description:

HOWIE is a warm, friendly, comedic contemporary Hawaiian character. A comic show-off, he loves to sing, laugh (and make others laugh) and eat. He is big, boisterous and full of life.

Script:

Hey- Aloha! (He solicits the audience to respond with Aloha!)
(referencing the beach front setting)
What do you think of Auntie's place? Pretty awesome,huh?

You know, this property has been in Auntie's family for over 150 years! Yeah! Since her Great, Great, Great Grandfather came to this island on a canoe from Bora Bora.

(warmly and sincerely) It's so good to have you here tonight- you see, we're having this luau for a very special occasion. See, there's this girl named Leilani who is heading to the mainland to go to college. And all the girls want to kiss her good bye. (With a wink) And all the BOYS want to kiss her good bye, too!

And tonight, you'll also get to see music history in the making. You see, I have this band... they are the hippest, hottest musical sound on the islands!
(introducing the band) Ladies and Gentlemen- for the very first time anywhere- The Beach Bashers!
