

Kimo
"Disney's Spirit of Aloha Dinner Show"
Disney's Polynesian Resort, Walt Disney World

Show Description:

The "Spirit of Aloha Dinner Show" is a musical theatre style interpretation of a classic Hawaiian Luau show. Combining traditional Polynesian dance with contemporary music and characters, the show celebrates the meaning of 'ohana' (family) and the spirit of aloha (welcome, love).

Character Description:

KIMO is a sincere, strong, uncomplicated guy who sings and dances. A lifelong resident of the island, he has a very heavy crush on Leilani, his childhood sweetheart.

Script:

Aloha! (He solicits the audience to respond with Aloha!)
(referencing the beach front setting)

What do you think of Auntie's place? Pretty awesome, huh?

You know, this property has been in Auntie's family for over 150 years! Yeah! Since her Great, Great, Great Grandfather came to this island on a canoe from Bora Bora.

Tonight, we're having this luau for a very special occasion. See, there's this girl named Leilani who is heading to the mainland to go to college.

And all the girls want to kiss her good bye. (Sheepishly) And all the BOYS want to kiss her good bye, too!

(Leilani arrives and he greets her) Leilani! Aloha! Welcome back, I missed you. I mean, we all missed you!
